    - www.legion.org/needalift
- Seniors are reminded that most colleges require communication from you by May 1 as to whether you will be attending. This is necessary in order to secure your financial aid award from the school you will be attending as well as to get refunds of deposits from schools you will not be attending.
- Seniors, who have applied to colleges and have listed them on the FAFSA, should have received financial aid award letters from those schools. If you have not heard from such colleges, contact their financial aid office ASAP.
- Seniors that have APPLIED To SSCC: graduating seniors are NOT eligible for financial aid during the summer semester. An option available for summer semester attendance is to attend as an “Early Admission” student and self-pay.
